

DISTINGUISHED ALUMNI AWARDS

The Pacific Alumni Association honors alumni whose outstanding achievements and service to humanity have brought credit to the University of the Pacific. Nominees must be former students of the University of the Pacific, with the exception of the Honorary Alumni Award. Nominees will have distinguished themselves in a profession, public service, community service, or support of the University.

Criteria:

- Nominees for the Distinguished Professional Service Award have achieved notable success in their professional field. This may include public or private enterprise.
- Nominees for the Distinguished Public Service Award have made exceptional professional contributions to society through civic or other public service while employed by a non-profit organization or governmental agency, whether elected or appointed.
- Nominees for the Distinguished Volunteer Service Award have made exceptional contributions to society through volunteer, civic or community service.
- Nominees for the Distinguished University Service Award deserve special recognition for their contributions to, and efforts on behalf of, the University.
- Nominees for the Outstanding Young Alumni Award are young alumni of distinction in any of the above categories who have attended the University within the last 15 years.
- Nominated families for the Outstanding Family Award have given special service, made outstanding contributions and brought great honor to the University. Family members must have attended the University of the Pacific.
- Nominees for the Medallion of Excellence are alumni faculty, alumni regents or alumni staff that have exhibited outstanding and exceptional service to the University.
- Nominees for the Honorary Alumni Award are individuals who did not attend the University, but who through their leadership, personal involvement and support have contributed significantly to the advancement of the University.

Award Selection: any student, alumnus/alumna, faculty, administrator, staff, parent or friend of the University of the Pacific can submit Nominations for awards. The Pacific Alumni Association Awards Committee will review all nominations. Award recipients will be notified by the Pacific Alumni Association and recognized at the annual Distinguished Alumni Awards Dinner & Ceremony in January. All nominations will be kept confidential by the Pacific Alumni Association and on file for a three-year period.
